JOIN THE CLUB WIN THE DREAM

FANATIXX™ is where passion meets possibility. We're not just another sweepstakes company — we're a movement of fans, fuelled by energy, community, and the thrill of winning the dream.

Every product, every entry, and every prize is a ticket to something bigger — belonging, excitement, and empowerment.

Empowered Fans. Empowered Dreams. Empowered Rewards.

We merge lifestyle, merchandise, and social good into one platform that celebrates passion and gives back with every draw.

It started with a simple idea: Fans drive every industry — sports, music, cars, gaming — yet rarely share in the rewards.

So we created FANATIXX, the Empowered Contest Company.

We give fans the chance to win their dream — a supercar, a custom trip, or a once-in-a-lifetime experience — simply by supporting the brands, causes, and gear they already love.

Every entry fuels more than a contest — it fuels a cause, a club, and a connection.

We don't just build promotions. We build communities of winning energy.

FANATIXX™ Where Passion Meets Purpose

A revolutionary new way for teams, leagues, fans and causes to win – together.

WHAT IS FANATIXX™?

FANATIXX is an Empowered Contest Company that transforms team merchandise and ticket sales into high-energy, high-revenue experiences – giving fans a chance to win VIP experiences and compete live for grand prizes like new vehicles, trips, and more. [FAN-A-TIXX “fan & tixx”]

Every purchase supports your team, your league, and your community – creating a true win-win-win. (YES, merch and tickets earn entries to win)

Fans don't just buy merch. They buy in to something bigger.

 - Ten finalists win VIP experiences to your championship or showcase game.
- The Big Moment.
 - They step onto the ice for the “Shoot to Win” challenge at the big game – SCORE, WIN, DRIVE the grand prize vehicle.
